The Response: A Call for Prayer is a day of prayer and fasting on August 6 centered in Houston, Texas. We will discuss some of the issues raised by this program on Sunday night, August 7 (church and state questions, politics of the leaders of the event, the responses of groups against the day). However, we can all agree that the United States can always use prayer. Probably none of us will be in Houston on August 6, but many of you may want to pray for our country and its leaders on that day (and many other days). And that is a good thing. So go ahead – pray. And fast if you would like to do so.

New Deacons – Do you have someone that you think would be a good deacon? Periodically, we ask for nominations for deacons. If you have a name, turn it into Jackie Myers or the pastor. Every name will be discussed and usually discussed with the person nominated. If everyone is in agreement, the person would then be presented to the congregation to be a candidate for a one year period of Training Deacon. So pray and turn in that name.
